

SIERRA MADRE'S 1956 Wistaria Queen is 16-year-old Carolyn Culp. The honey-blond was chosen by a panel of local judges to reign over the 42d annual Sierra Madre Wistaria Festival. The fete continues through April while the famous Sierra Madre Wistaria Vine, the world's largest blossoming plant, is in flower. During the blossoming season the Wistaria Gardens at 201 W. Carter Ave. are open to the public. Miss Culp, of 3825 Fairmeade St., Hastings Ranch, was chosen from among the five Wistaria princesses, finalists in the annual Wistaria queen contest. She attends Pasadena High School.

Mrs. W. F. Jones Dies After a Week's Illness

Mrs. Woodson F. Jones of 124 E. Alegria, who has resided in Sierra Madre since 1918, died at 2:30 a.m. April 2 in St. Luke Hospital after a week's illness. She was 72.

Mrs. Jones was a member of St. Rita's Altar Society, the Woman's Club and other organizations.

With her husband, who died in November 1954, she came here from Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Jones, who operated the Sierra Madre Realty at 27 N. Baldwin until his death, was one of the best known and most beloved figures in Sierra Madre.

His motto was "I just like people," and among his pastimes was the dispensing of free candy and gum to children.

He loved to discuss the town—which he had known since its village days of 2,000 people, a few stores and the end of a streetcar line—and his standard greeting was: "Come on, I'll buy you a cup of coffee."

Services for Mrs. Jones were held Wednesday morning at St. Rita's Catholic Church. The Rosary was said Tuesday night in the church. Ripple Mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Survivors include Mrs. Julia B. Shannon, of Sierra Madre, and many nieces and nephews.

Newell Barrett Takes Post As School Board Member

Newell Barrett, Sierra Madre attorney, was sworn in Tuesday night as a School Board member.

Mr. Barrett was appointed upon the recommendation of the School Board to serve out the two years remaining in the term of George Feichtmann, who resigned after moving out of town.

Mr. Barrett, who has lived in Sierra Madre for three years, is president of the local Community Chest, a member of Kiwanis, and a member of the board of the Red Cross. He is a graduate of UC.

In a related action, Kenneth Bush announced this week that he will file for election May 18 to the board. Filing deadline is April 18. Board member John Conzelman revealed last week that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

In other action Tuesday night, the board:

1—Received word from Mrs.

Matilda Smith, former music teacher here who was dismissed in the economy moves of two years ago, refusing an offer to return. Mrs. Smith is supervisor of music in the Garvey School District.

2—Revealed that all present employees of the Sierra Madre school system will be offered contracts for next year.

3—Heard a safety report from Glen Falls Insurance Co. giving a high safety rating to both schools here.

4—Approved the listing of five substitute teachers.

Girl Here Wins Artist Competition

SIERRA MADRE today saluted its top local homemaker, Mrs. Virginia Treder of 260 Rancho Road, who won the title "Mrs. Sierra Madre" in the contest sponsored by the Exchange Club. Next step for Mrs. Treder will be the regional contest to be held at the Masonic Temple, El Monte, today at 1:30 p.m. Other finalists in the local contest were: Mrs. Gina Velasquez, 269 Cypress Court; Mrs. Charles Peterson, 71 Suffolk; Mrs. James Tyler, 185½ E. Sierra Madre Blvd., and Mrs. Helen Fletcher, 214 Adams. Prizes awarded to Mrs. Treder include an engraved silver serving tray. The Mrs. America contest is being sponsored nationally by the American Gas Association, and in Southern California by Southern California and Southern Counties Gas Co., and by local De Soto dealers.

Ann Austin, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Austin, of 190 S. Mountain Trail Road, is a recent winner in the Young Artists Competition conducted annually by the San Gabriel Valley Symphony Association. She will be a featured soloist in the orchestra concert next Sunday at 3 p.m. in Monrovia-Duarte High School Auditorium.

Ann is at present studying voice with Carolyn Allingham in Pasadena and is enrolled at Pasadena City College. She was a Gold Seal graduate of Monrovia-Duarte High School last June, where she won many honors, including the best actress award in 1955 and first in the Senior Declamation contest.

First Western Merger Takes Place Friday

Plans Set For Week Of Jubilee

With additional events scheduled for the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the founding of Sierra Madre, and local organizations supporting the events, a full week of activities has been promised by the Diamond Jubilee Committee and the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors, for April 15 to 21.

A reception for artists, in conjunction with the exhibit of paintings in the gallery, has been announced for Friday evening, April 20, in the City Hall, under the sponsorship of the Woman's Club. Refreshments will be served.

It was in 1930 that Mrs. Fred Griebenow was personally responsible for an adjunct of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club known as the "Little Gallery." Here monthly receptions or exhibitions or both were held for our resident artists as well as for visiting artists.

This labor of love was continued by Mrs. Griebenow for many years and in memory of her wonderful achievement the Woman's Club is holding this reception.

Former councilmen and city officials will be feted Wednesday evening, at 7:30, also in the City Hall. Present councilmen and administrators will be hosts.

Actively supporting the Jubilee is the Historical Society. President C. W. Jones has scheduled the annual meeting for Saturday. The society also is presenting an exhibit in the Churches have been requested to use the following hymn, by W. G. Tarrant and J. B. Dykes, in connection with Diamond Jubilee Week, April 15-21:

The fathers built this city
In ages long ago,
And busy in the busy streets
They hurried to and fro;
The children played around them

And sang the songs of yore,
Till one by one they fell asleep
To work and play no more.
Yet still the city standeth

A hive of toiling men,
And mother's love makes happy homes
For children now as then.

O God of ages help us
Such citizens to be
That children's children here
May sing

The songs of liberty.
The jubilee committee has asked readers to clip out these words for use in churches April 15.

library throughout the week, and members will be on hand to give informal talks to visiting school classes.

William Bowers, Master of the Masonic Lodge, has announced the lodge will be dark Tuesday, April 17, and members will attend the Historical Pageant, written by a lodge member, Dr. Raymond Pease, to be given at the Highland Ave. school.

The Civic Club is providing decorations for the community dinner in the Woman's Club, Monday evening, and also will conduct the needlework contest.

Treasure Hunt Starts Today

Sierra Madre's town-wide Treasure Hunt, which coincides with the blooming of the giant Wistaria Vine, starts today with more than 500 free prizes awaiting the holders of lucky numbers.

To win a prize, you should save the numbered letter you received in the mail from the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce.

If the number on the letter matches a numbered item in one of Sierra Madre's stores, you can claim that item as a free prize. Only adults can claim prizes. For further details about the Treasure Hunt, which ends Saturday, see Page 7, Section 2.

Voters Must Register Here By April 12

The Sierra Madre Republican Club this week urged Sierra Madrans to register to vote in the June 5 state primary election by April 12.

Voters in the 1954 general election need not register.

Voters must register if they have changed address since last registration; if they have changed their names; if they did not vote in the primary or general elections of 1954; if they have come of age in the last two years, and if they are new residents who have been in the state one year and in the county 90 days.

According to Benjamin Hite, county registrar of voters, both major parties in the county are far below their 1954 registration despite the great increase in population.

To expedite registration in Sierra Madre a number of deputy registrars have been appointed. A deputy registrar also will be at the Bank of Sierra Madre on Friday evenings.

The deputy registrars are: Mrs. H. L. Woodward, 99 Suffolk, EL 5-1296; Mrs. Josephine Marr, 204 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., EL 5-0939; Mrs. Noren Eaton, 145 E. Alegria, EL 5-1454; Mrs. Collin Thomas, 49 W. Orange Grove, EL 5-1116; Clerk, City Hall.

Red Cross at 66 Per Cent of Goal

The Sierra Madre chapter of the American Red Cross had attained approximately 66 per cent of its goal at the close of business Monday, Fund Chairman Col. Charles R. Gildart announced yesterday. The chapter is seeking $6,916.

Local Employees to Staff And Run New Branch

The Bank of Sierra Madre which was founded in 1907, tomorrow will become a part of the statewide system of the First Western Bank and Trust Co.

Shareholders of both banks late last week approved the merger. Bank directors and state and federal authorities previously had authorized the consolidation.

"Our clients," said Thomas W. Neale, president of the Bank of Sierra Madre, "will now have a reservoir of resources of one of the largest banks in the nation with facilities statewide in scope. The improved service that will result from the consolidation will be good for Sierra Madre and its entire trading area."

The bank here, which has deposits of approximately $6,500,000, will be known as the Sierra Madre office of First Western and will be staffed and managed by the personnel now employed. They will retain their seniority after joining First Western.

J. Arthur Taylor, vice president of the Board of First Western, said:

"We welcome the Sierra Madre banking organization into First Western. We contemplate furnishing a valuable service to the community and hope to share on the continued growth of the area."

The merger was accomplished through an exchange of 17,000 shares of stock in First Western for 2,000 shares of the Bank of Sierra Madre. Money-wise, the merger cost First Western approximately $850,000, or $425 a share.

First Western was founded in 1868 and today represents a consolidation of many banks, principally the Central Bank of Oakland and the San Francisco Bank.

Consolidation of these two banks occurred in 1954 and resulted from a proposal made by Transamerica Corp., which owned control of the Central Bank of Oakland. Later, Transamerica sold 23 of its smaller banks to First Western. This transaction, in the fall of 1954, provided First Western with 54 offices in 39 communities.

The bank tomorrow will have 76 offices in 59 communities and has total resources exceeding $900,000,000.

Officers of First Western are T. P. Coats, board chairman; F. N. Belgrano Jr., chairman and president of Transamerica Corp., and Henry Verdelin, First Western's president.

The bank conducts an integrated operation, including a trust department, commercial, savings, safe deposit vault, installment credit loans, real estate and business loans of every nature.

Population Is Put at 8,922, 1,649 Over '50

Current population of Sierra Madre was placed at 8,922 this week by the County Regional Planning Commission.

The figure was included in the commission's quarterly report of population estimates. This total compares with 7,273 established for Sierra Madre by the federal census of 1950.

The number of dwelling units estimated for the city is 3,212. There were 2,629 dwelling units here in 1950.

Population estimates for other communities are: Arcadia, 36,291; Monrovia, 25,788; and Pasadena, 117,948.

The county population is now placed at 5,225,320 as of April 1. This represents a gain of 39,100 county-wide during the past three months.

Semanon Club Plans Program on Youth Problems

The Semanon Club will present a program at its April 11 meeting in the Park House to mark Youth Temperance Education Week, April 9-15.

The week was proclaimed by Gov. Knight "as encouragement to the determination of young people to personally resist and collectively combat the harmful effects of narcotics."

The program at the Semanon meeting will be given by a group of young people from the State Youth Temperance Council. Included will be music by the Torrence Choral Group and a film. A talk on youth temperance will be given by Mrs. Donna Giles, general secretary of the council.

MRS. F. JOSEPH McCORMACK, co-chairman with her husband of the 1956-57 Foothill Community Concert Association, and Carl R. Engel illustrate the necessity of obtaining season tickets before the campaign closes

Hit the High Note

If someone comes knocking at your door this week, it will be Opportunity, and if you believe in adages, you'll open the door quickly, for he or she will knock only once.

That's because the Foothill Community Concert Association will be conducting its annual one-week membership campaign. After nine highly successful seasons, the local group is hopeful that even more Sierra Madreans will take advantage of this unique plan through which everyone can enjoy the finest in musical entertainment.

The instinctive reaction on the part of too many people is that "concerts are not for me—they're too highbrow, and besides I could watch them on TV."

We urge everyone to forget instincts and to subscribe. These concerts, held during the winter and spring of each year in the Monrovia-Duarte High School Auditorium, are not intended for the enjoyment of a handful of musical students.

They are planned for everyone and can be enjoyed by anyone.

The list of solo artists and musical groups presented in the past by our local association reads like a "Who's Who" of the musical world—Helen Traubel, Licia Albanese, the Corelli String Ensemble from Italy, William Warfield, Vronsky and Babin, Les Compagnons de la Chanson, Dorothy Maynor, Leonard Pennario, among many others.

In addition, the Foothill Community Concert Association is a non-profit group, with every dollar of membership dues paid to the association being spent for artists and attractions and the local expenses of presenting them in concert.

We wish the Sierra Madre workers every success in this year's membership campaign, and we urge you not to wait until Opportunity knocks on your door, but telephone the campaign office at the Music Shop, today!

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

Lately radio has been trying to stuff us with its favorite 5-minute sandwich—a thin slice of ham between two commercials. But how few of the dramas are rendered as dramatically as are many of the commercials!

SOME OF MY Republican friends are happy because California Democrats seem headed for a hot primary battle. But there are several hundred thousands more registered Democrats in California than there are Republicans.

For years they have been asleep or so indifferent as to be unconscious of their power. If a hot battle within their ranks should really wake them up they might become conscious of their unused power and take over the state—not including Sierra Madre. Nothing I can think of can possibly wake up some of the Democrats in Sierra Madre.

BUT HERE'S the schedule for many candidates in both parties: Aspirin time now, aspirin time later on.

THE GHOSTS of dead words continually arise to embarrass and frighten candidates, especially those who have been successful the first time but haven't performed as they thought they would perform.

Many men in politics for the first time know very little about a lot of problems but do know they want to win, so they say the things their advisers tell them will help. In the heat of conflict, nearly any such man is likely to make or infer promises he hasn't a Chiang Kai-shek's chance of making good on. Two or four years later he does his best to forget those utterances, but his opponents don't forget. Banquo's ghost could never be laid—and neither can political bunco's ghost.

THAT'S WHY so many candidates, on both sides, take a tip from a Lincoln anecdote. According to the story, Lincoln attended church while campaigning for Congress. The minister asked all who wished to go to Heaven to raise their hands. All but Lincoln raised hands. Then the minister asked those who wished to go to the other place to raise their hands. Again Lincoln sat unmoved.

"Where do you want to go, Mr. Lincoln?" demanded the minister.
"I want to go to Congress," Lincoln replied.

HERE'S PART of an argument I overheard on our main street the other day:

"I'm for the party for peace," one man said. "Every time the Democrats are in power we have war, every time the Republicans are in we have peace."

The other retorted: "Ever hear of Lincoln and McKinley? They had wars. It is also true that Wilson kept us out of war for three years—until an unarmed ship supposed to have freedom of the seas and therefore carrying many American citizens, was torpedoed without search or warning. And Roosevelt kept us out of war until the sneak attack at Pearl Harbor—and what real American didn't want to go to war then?"
Well, what do you think?

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

49 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, April 5, 1907—Mrs. Charles Stivers and daughter, Hildegard, were guests of Mrs. E. H. Howard, Wednesday.

Miss Amelia Humphries, who has for the past three weeks been the guest of Mrs. George Humphries, leaves for Santa Barbara this week.

John Regan, of Pasadena, was in town last Saturday, looking after his business interests. Mr. Regan formerly was a resident of Sierra Madre and still owns property here.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, April 3, 1936—Latest claimant to the phrase, "Local boy makes good," is Harold Pegler, son of City Treasurer Carlton J. Pegler, who has just been appointed manager of Bastanchury Ranch, the largest orange orchard in the United States.

Vernon Jay Morse, director of Sierra Madre's Little Gallery, has been elected a member of the Board of Governors of the Academy of Western Painters, the West's yearly art organization.

After he had eaten an undetermined amount of ant paste, Thomas Tuttle, 21 months old, of 633 1/2 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., was taken to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital by his mother Friday morning. He was brought home Saturday and is now "doing nicely."

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, April 4, 1946—John C. Haynes, of Tucson, Ariz., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crepin and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Suman, East Highland, the first of the week.

Waverly Pratt, Miner Harkness and William Lindsey attended a meeting in Arcadia Friday evening, called to organize a soft baseball league for the 18th District of the American Legion.

Ann and Evelyn Knoblauch, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Knoblauch, 1555 N. Santa Anita, and Marilyn Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Loree Russell, 1547 Rodeo, who comprise a vocal trio, entertained the patients at Las Encinas Sanatorium, Pasadena, Wednesday night.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, April 5, 1951—E. Waldo Ward will end nearly 19 years' service on the City School Board this June. He has announced he will not seek re-election.

Mrs. Lee H. Cash was at home for a tea Tuesday afternoon at her home, 243 E. Montecito. A discussion of art occupied the guests, including Mmes. Sally Dewey, Catherine Tuttle, Myrtle Weese, B. Ward McIvor, Helen Narozny and Blanch Luper.

There was a double shuffle in moving Tuesday between 470 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. and 421 N. Sunnyside, when the William Cahill Jr. family and the Donald Jackson family exchanged homes. It was a mutual agreement, as each family desired the qualities of the other family's home.

Letters to the Editor Column

Dear Sir:

A couple of weeks ago, a letter appeared concerning the Boy Scouts of the local area. At first, I passed it off as a crank who possibly had been bothered by a few too exuberant boys on paper drives, grease collections, ticket sales, etc., or possibly by a conscientious adult campaigning for the very worthwhile Sustaining Membership Drive.

The more I thought about the letter, the more I realized this person is very misled and uninformed. He is living in the past, "when he was a boy," not realizing the world is moving along at a very rapid and expensive pace. Also, not knowing actually how the Boy Scout program was partially subsidized from outside revenue, even when he was a member.

Having been in the Boy Scouts for 18 years, I've heard these comments before, but have usually been able to explain the current function of the Scouting program to the person in question. Scouting has undoubtedly changed in the past 20 to 30 years, both financially and program-wise.

If "Old-Timer" is sincerely interested, please have him call me at ELgin 5-6409, and I'll be glad to bring him up to date on the Boy Scout activities, and show him the Council budget so he can see where the money goes. I don't profess to know all, as I'm just a "Dollar-a-Year" member—I pay my dollar—for the privilege and satisfaction of knowing I am helping the neighbor children of Mr. Old-Timer grow up under the guidance of the largest Communist-free youth organization in the world.

Yours for better Scouting,
BERT EMBREE,
Cub Commissioner,
Mount Wilson District.

Dear Sir:

Ralph and I and our children wish to take this opportunity to thank all our friends and customers for the best wishes and prayers they have offered during our time of stress. The numerous letters and well-wishers to our door have overwhelmed us and we want all these wonderful people to know it has helped to ease the burden. Our many thanks go to each and everyone.

Sincerely,
RALPH HURWITZ FAMILY.

Woman's Club to Have Luncheon Meeting April 11

Members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club will meet April 11 for their regular monthly luncheon meeting. Mrs. Marion D. Austin, president, will preside at the business meeting scheduled for 11 a.m. and luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock.

Mrs. Percy C. Kortkamp, nominating committee chairman, will announce the slate of new officers selected for the coming year by herself and committee members. Mrs. C. A. Pugsley and Mrs. John E. Vebelen.

The program chairman, Mrs. Neil Fallon, will introduce Elwood N. Chapman, psychologist, who will speak on "Your Attitude is Showing."

Luncheon reservations must be made by next Monday evening with a call to Mrs. Ruby Barham at ELgin 5-0208.

Church Breakfast Planned April 9

All businessmen and residents are reminded the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science is sponsoring another breakfast April 9 at George's Real Pit Bar-B-Q, 19 W. Huntington, Arcadia, from 7:30 to 11 a.m., to benefit its building fund.

Serving will start early to accommodate the working people and will continue through the coffee break period. The Mathieus are giving this breakfast the first Monday of each month but because of the Easter holidays, it will be served the second Monday this month.

Sincere thanks to Harold Stein of the Sierra Madre Theater for both the use of his theater and his expert advice and assistance in doing the benefit matinee for the Sierra Madre PTA-sponsored Cub Scout Pack 351. The children enjoyed the movie and the Pack raised a nice sum of money.

A "HOT TIME" was had at the buffet dinner given by Cecil and Jobyna Hicks of 111 Colony Drive last Saturday evening. A fire which started in a waste basket on the service porch caused no little excitement in the neighborhood but did (fortunately) little damage. Guests at the "hot buffet" were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grean, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sullivan, and Mr. and Mrs. Rex McKettrick.

NEW ARRIVALS are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hartman of 341 E. San Gabriel Court. Mr. Hartman is associated with Bidder Publications, the firm which recently purchased the Star News. We haven't been able to talk with them personally as yet but we bid them welcome and hope to meet them soon.

KITTY JAMES, daughter of our Mayor and Mrs. Charles James of 110 Rancho Road, and David Foxton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Foxton, entertained their 6th grade class of Ascension Parish Day School with a pool side luncheon last Saturday. Guests were Susan Meeder, Mary Ann Hutchinson, Patty Saunders, Gretchen Ehr, Sharon Lord, Susanne Toms, Kent Brown, Jerry Graces, Bill Keith, Kit Wilcox, Wynn Wells, John Meir, and Joe Dauben.

HOSTING "SOON TO BE" home owners in Sierra Madre, Mr. and Mrs. Olah, were Andrew and Juanita Coscia of 542 Santa Anita Court. Andy Coscia, who is sales manager of Calcor Corp., currently is building a play room and cabana off their swimming pool, with the dubious help of sons Stevie and Philip.

JOHN BERDAHL, son of Caltech engineer and Mrs. Martin C. Berdahl, 472 San Gabriel Court, was host to neighbor children at an Easter Egg hunt Saturday. Guests included John Barkley, Jan Johnson, Jo Ann and Steve Horswell, and Sharon and Roy Smith.

John Marshall To Sponsor 'Spring Concert'

"Spring Concert," an evening of instrumental music by John Marshall Junior High School's three bands and orchestras, will be presented April 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Dana Moffatt will direct the advanced, intermediate and beginners bands who will each play numbers as individual musical aggregations and then as a massed unit. Trombones will be featured in one number and a trio of trumpets in another.

Advanced and beginners orchestras will likewise perform as units and in various combinations.

This will be the first opportunity for parents, friends and students to hear the advanced band and orchestra perform since the recent District Festival held in Bell Gardens, where both rated a 2 grading in the judging. The excellent rating was based on behavior, appearance and quality of performance.

Eteri Club Plans Meeting April 9

Mrs. Margaret Ower, 81 Auburn, will be hostess to Eteri Club members next Monday evening at 7:45 p.m. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Elsie Ower.

Mrs. Ruth Savage will preside at the business meeting and the Bible message will be presented by Miss Natalie Romans.

The group accomplished a great deal, at its recent work night, in the preparation of visual aids to be taken back to the mission field in Brazil by the Dewey Mulhollands.

Birthday cake and ice cream was served to honor Miss Roberta Scott, Mrs. Savage, Miss Jean Chapman, Mrs. Betty Bush and Mrs. Lois Childers who all celebrated birthday anniversaries during the month of March.

CHINA TOWN DINNER

The Sierra Partners of the Methodist Church have announced that reservations for the group's dinner at China Town on April 14 can be made with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore at ELgin 5-6049 or Mrs. Robert Hinshaw, ELgin 5-7443. Deadline date: April 10.

EASTER DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Leland P. Marsh, 657 W. Grandview, enjoyed a family dinner party Easter Sunday in the Sunland home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gelkhe.

—Maryland Studio.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finney Stiles

Marjorie Joyce Scoville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill James Scoville, 272 W. Grand View, became the bride of Robert Finney Stiles, son of Rev. and Mrs. John Edwin Stiles Sr., of Pacoima, Calif., March 23 in Pasadena Civic Auditorium with Dr. Robert N. Schaper of Bethany Church and Phil Kerr, evangelist, officiating.

The platform of the auditorium was decorated as the "Hall of Fame" with huge pillars, topped with baskets of gladioli and stock, flanking each side of a large picture of Soliman's head of Christ. Additional baskets of flowers decorated the platform.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and full bouffant skirt which ended in a long Cathedral train. Handmade heirloom lace, made in India, was used to trim the skirt and finger-tip French illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white tulips and orchids.

Marileen Scoville of Los Angeles, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a pink crystallette over American Beauty taffeta dress and an American Beauty picture hat. Her bouquet was of pink tulips.

The bridesmaids, Betsy La Sor of Altadena, Jeanette Carlson of Sierra Madre, Elizabeth Myers of San Gabriel, Joyce Keosababian of Whittier, Kathy King of Compton, and Jeanne Polgreen of Sierra Madre, wore identical pink crystallette over pink taffeta gowns and pink picture hats. Their bouquets were of American Beauty tulips.

Two of the bride's cousins, Ann Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brice A. Carlson of Sierra Madre, and Janet Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bell Jr., also of Sierra Madre, were flower girls and wore miniature dresses and hats like that of the maid of honor. Two Sierra Madre boys, Billy Messersmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Messersmith, and Robert Ingram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ingram, were ring bearers and were attired in white jackets and black trousers similar to the ushers.

Rev. John Edwin Stiles Jr., pastor of the Osborn Neighborhood Church in the San Fernando Valley, served his brother as best man.

The 600 invited guests were seated by Edwin James Scoville, brother of the bride; James John Malcolm, Jerry A. Snyder, James Huston Morrison, Benito Perri and Kenneth Dean Savage.

Laurie Wegeman and Mrs. John Edwin Stiles Jr., soloists, were accompanied at the organ by Mrs. John Olsen.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Gold Room at Pasadena Civic Auditorium.

The bride was born and raised in Sierra Madre. She is a graduate of Biola Bible College and now is enrolled in Pilot Nurse's Course at Pasadena City College, where she is a member of Kantaka Club.

She will graduate and receive her associate arts degree this June. She will complete her third year of nurse's training at Huntington Memorial Hospital in June 1957.

The bride and her sister, Marileen, play the marimba and vibraphone and piano. They have played since the age of 9 and have made more than 2,900 appearances at churches, schools, clubs, banquets, radio and television programs.

The groom graduated cum laude from Seattle Pacific College and is included in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. He will graduate from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, where he is a member of Alpha Kappa Sigma, next May. He currently is assistant pastor at his brother's church in the Valley.

Garden Club to Meet April 9

The Sierra Madre Garden Club will meet April 9 in the Woman's Clubhouse for a dinner meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Lee W. Lenz, a member of the staff of Rancho Santa Anna Botanic Garden of Claremont, will present a talk on the plants native to our state.

Reservations should be made with Mrs. Carl H. Gerke at ELgin 5-0174 by noon April 7.

Mrs. Mamie E. Johnson Buried at Forest Lawn

Funeral services were read last Saturday at the Wee Kirk for Mamie E. Johnson, widow of Frank Edward Johnson, who passed away March 28 in a Pasadena sanatorium after a year's illness.

She was born Nov. 18, 1881, in Cleburne, Tex., and came to Southern California in 1919. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Arthur B. Colnon of Sierra Madre and Mrs. Ira W. Kinsey of Hollywood; three sons, Herbert L. Johnson of Orange, Calif., Edward R. Johnson of Santa Rosa, Calif., and Eugene C. Johnson of Ft. Worth, Tex.; two sisters, Mrs. John Potter and Mrs. Charles B. Jones of Dallas, Tex.; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Interment was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

HEAD DELEGATION

Mayor Charles H. James of Sierra Madre, along with five Juvenile Court judges and Chairman Herbert C. Legg of the Board of Supervisors, will head a delegation to the conference on children and youth called by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight in Sacramento on April 4-5.

When a tight wad parts with the inflated dollar of today it only costs him 30 cents worth of anguish.

Youth Group Elects Officers, New Board

The Youth Activities Association of Sierra Madre met at the Park House March 21 and elected the following officers and Board of Directors:

Edward R. Oliver, president; Carlton V. Scalzo, vice president; Mrs. T. E. Willis, secretary; William E. Bodley, treasurer; Mrs. Edith T. Dane, membership; Mrs. A. D. Slaney, supervision; Mrs. D. W. McCormack, publicity; Leland P. Marsh, advisor, and Mrs. W. J. Stanley.

Advisors to the Board, Milton L. Goldberg, Phillip T. Mitchell, George W. Lindsay, Thomas R. Suttner, Albert E. Morgan, Gordon G. McMillan and Edith T. Dane.

The Youth Activities Association works in conjunction with the Sierra Madre teenagers, the Semonon Club.

Barry Alexander, director of the Semonon Club, has tentative plans for outside activities for the club members during the month of April. The members are planning projects during the year which will build up the Semonon treasury so that they may soon build their own clubhouse.

A man's chief liability is his ability to make excuses.

FLANKED BY FLOWERS from well-wishers, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wolfe are shown at the recent opening of their new Youngland Store at 31 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. The store formerly was located at 34 N. Baldwin Ave.

Pastor to Get Degree at Church Here

In the 11 o'clock service April 8 in the Church of the Nazarene the degree of Doctor of Divinity will be conferred upon the Rev. Mrs. Emma French, pastor of the Los Angeles Riverside Drive Church of the Nazarene, by Dr. Fred E. Stemme, president of Burton College and Seminary, a graduate school of divinity of Manitou Springs, Colorado.

Dr. French is the mother of Mrs. Mabel Burlison of 62 East Highland Ave., Sierra Madre, and was a member of the local church some years ago.

The ministerial career of Dr. French began in 1920 with the organization of a rural church at Eagle, Idaho, which she pastored for seven years. Poor health brought her to the milder climate of California in 1927. During her convalescence she completed her studies leading to ordination, and was ordained in 1930.

That year Dr. French was assigned to Montebello, where she organized a church and built a commodious structure to house it. She served in that church 19 years, when ill-health again forced her to take a rest. In 1949 she was elected pastor of the Los Angeles Riverside Drive Church of the Nazarene, which she has served for the past 7 years, receiving a three year extension of her term this spring.

Dr. French graduated from Pasadena College in 1934 with the degree of Bachelor of Theology.

Mrs. Georgia West Dies Here at 96

Mrs. Georgia A. West, widow of Laomer West, died March 30 at the residence of her daughter, Ruth W. West, 470 W. Highland Ave., Sierra Madre, after a long illness. She was 96.

She was a native of Canada but came to California with her parents at an early age. She received her early education in the Eureka schools and was a graduate of UCLA.

After her marriage she lived in Washington, D.C., where her husband was in United States Law Department. After several years she came back to California and settled in Los Angeles with her family, where she lived for over 50 years. Because of ill health she came recently to Sierra Madre to reside with her daughter.

She was a member of the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles and took an active interest in club work and civic and national affairs.

Funeral services were conducted April 2 in Los Angeles, with interment in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Hymn-Sing Set At Family Night

An old-fashioned hymn-sing will be the program feature of the Family Night April 11 at Congregational Church. The pot-luck style dinner will begin at 6:30 in Pritchard Hall, and the hymn-sing will be held in the Sanctuary of the church, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Stewart Matter, choir director of the church, will conduct the Sing.

Ancient Maxims Are Center Topic

Services will be held April 6 at 8:30 p.m. at the Foothill Jewish Community Center, 212 N. Lima St.

Rabbi Charles C. Steckel, spiritual leader, will speak on "Saying of the Fathers," Part I. These are the most known of all 63 Tractates of the Jewish Code of Law, known as The Mishnah. It consists for the great part of favorite maxims of 60 Rabbis, extending over a period of nearly 500 years.

Cantor George David will chant the hymns and prayers. Host of the Oneg Shabbath, following the services, will be Dr. and Mrs. Ruben Friedman of Monrovia. All are welcome.

Services Are Held For John Carpenter

John Carpenter, of Briar Hill Lodge, Sierra Madre, died April 1 at the age of 94.

Last rites were administered by Father Peirce, of St. Rita's Church.

Mr. Carpenter had been a resident of Briar Hill Lodge for the past seven years.

Services were held April 3 at Hollywood, and burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Los Angeles.

Mr. Carpenter is survived by a son, Tom Carpenter, of Pasadena, and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Carroll of Los Angeles and Mrs. E. A. Manley of Tacoma, Wash.

William A. Paul Succumbs Here

William Andrew Paul, of 83 N. Sunnyside, died at his home April 1. He was 63.

Mr. Paul, a native of Gilman, Iowa, had been a resident of Sierra Madre for World War I, a member of the American Legion and of the El Monte Lodge, I.O.O.F.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth Green Paul; a daughter, Mrs. Madeline Halley of Prospect, Oregon; a granddaughter, Ruth Kathleen Halley, also of Prospect; four sisters, Mrs. Steele Ingraham of Long Beach; Mrs. Charles Cummings, of Hot Springs, Ark.; and Mrs. Layton Burns and Mrs. Bruce Campbell, both of Gilman, Iowa, and a brother, Fred Paul, also of Gilman.

Funeral services were set for this morning at 10 a.m. in Rose Chapel, Rose Hills Memorial Park, Whittier. The Rev. Chilton McPheeters was to conduct services and Ripple Mortuary was in charge of arrangements. According to the Los Angeles County coroner's office, death was caused by a self-inflicted shot gun wound. Mr. Paul had been in ill health for some time.

ADULT CLASS

The Foothill Jewish Community Center has announced that the next Adult Class will be held April 10 at 7:15 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. David Splaver, 60 Stanford Dr., Arcadia. Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple, will speak on the "Book of Job."

The few seconds you save by speeding may be the first you spend in eternity.

Children Are Topic Of Homebuilders Club

"How to Enjoy Your Children" will be the topic at the next meeting of the Homebuilders Club of Bethany Church.

There will be an informal panel of three members with Helen Obazawa as moderator. Mrs. Cora Schropzberger will speak on children's emotional development. Marie Franzen will talk on spiritual development and Betty Bush on physical development. Discussion will follow.

The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Anna Marie Browning, 3665 Shadow Grove Rd., on April 12 at 7:45 p.m. All interested are invited.

Evangelist Gives Sermon Series at Nazarene Church

The Rev. Fred W. Fetters, of Altadena — musician author teacher, preacher — is preaching this week at the Church of the Nazarene.

Mr. Fetters, who began his series April 4, will preach every evening except Saturday and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Sunday sermons will be at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. There will be no sermon on Saturday.

Mr. Fetters has preached throughout the United States and parts of Canada and has pastored some of his denomination's large churches in Canada, Kansas, New Mexico and Idaho.

IT'S FIESTA TIME

Tlaloc, the Aztec Rain God, was worshipped in Mexico until the Spaniards substituted San Ysidro, Christian patron saint of farmers as the deity of the waters. However, the ancient Aztec sacrificial rites, the dance to the four winds of the Apache, and other strange and exotic rituals can still be seen in Mexican springtime celebrations.

The Mexican Players of Padua Hills, with Rogelio Alfaro and Alicia de la Torre adding romance to the celebration, begin their 23rd annual spring fiesta to San Ysidro April 4 in "En El Mes De Mayo." Call or write Padua Hills Theatre in Claremont, Calif., for reservations.

Books Are Sought For Marine Base

The Sierra Madre Chapter of the American Red Cross has been asked to collect paper-covered pocket books — mysteries preferred — for the El Toro Marine Base Hospital, Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary, announced yesterday.

The Marines at El Toro also would like copies of Reader's Digest, Omnibook and Coronet. Donations may be made by using the collection boxes at Roberts Market and the Safeway, or books and magazines may be brought to the Red Cross at 25 S. Baldwin.

Spring Tea Set For May 12 by Hospital Guild

Members of the Sierra Guild to the Childrens Hospital met in the home of Mrs. L. G. Luzmoor for their regular monthly meeting.

Included in the day's agenda was a report given by Mrs. Barney Tumulty on the proposed revision of the Guild's by-laws. The changes were discussed and voted upon.

Arrangements for the annual spring tea were presented by Mrs. Luzmoor, general chairman of the affair, and tickets were distributed to all members. This fund raising project will be held May 12 in the Arcadia home of Mrs. Paul Case, 1065 Singingwood Drive, between the hours of 2:30 and 4 p.m.

Following the business meeting, presided over by the newly elected president, Mrs. George Osborn, luncheon was served.

Children to Give A Program for St. Rita's Guild

St. Rita's Guild will hold its regular monthly luncheon meeting April 10.

Father Thomas O'Malley, pastor of St. Rita's Church, will speak.

For the benefit of the mothers, the school children will repeat their St. Patrick's Day program, consisting of a first grade rhythm band, two songs by the seventh and eighth grade girls, a play by the second grade and an Irish dance by the sixth grade girls.

Luncheon will be served at 11:45 in the parish hall by the first grade mothers with Mrs. Richard Loel and Mrs. Jules Ruggles in charge.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. William C. Wish, ELgin 5-2762.

SERMON TOPIC

"The Law of Mind in Action" will be the subject of the Sunday sermon April 8 at 11 a.m. by Dr. Ethel Barnhart, Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 So. Rosemead Blvd., Pasadena.

Noon Saturday Is Deadline For Concert Memberships

With the "sold out" sign scheduled to go up at noon next Saturday, residents of Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch were urged this week by Mr. and Mrs. F. Joseph McCormack, campaign chairman, to reserve their 1956-57 Foothill Community Concert Association season memberships immediately.

Sierra Madreans At Conference

Mrs. Marjorie Green, director of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, left Lockhead Air Terminal Tuesday evening for Sacramento, where she had been invited to attend the Governor's Conference on Childhood and Youth.

Mrs. Green was accompanied by Mrs. Edith Dane, who was invited to represent the Coordinating Council.

Plans Set

Members of the Woman's Club will serve the dinner, under the supervision of Mrs. Percy Kortkamp, in costumes appropriate to the times, and also will provide the entertainment.

The PTA and the Teachers' Club are hosting a reception for former school people at the school Thursday afternoon at 2:45. An essay contest has been conducted at all schools in the city, with winners to be selected this week and announced at the pageant. Judges are Miss Martha Pritchard, Mrs. Elizabeth Steinberger, and C. W. Jones.

There is no charge for any event except the dinner, according to Col. Walter Thurber, chairman. Tickets are available at Don Jackson's Men's Store and from Postmaster Charles Louk.

Cluck Cluck, cackle, and scratch! My goodness I've eaten a lot of eggs. Creamed, sliced, ground up, and as gar-nishing. Too bad I wasn't on a diet right now with all of the natural supply.

THE BIRTHDAYS of Francis H. Webb and son Francis, Jr., were celebrated last week at the family home at 3454 Vossburg. They were joined in their festivities by little Tina Clark-Samazan, six-month-old daughter of the John Clark-Samazans of Sierra Madre, Mr. and Mrs. Webb left for a trip to San Diego after the party, but returned in time for Easter at home.

STEVE CHAPMAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, of 1595 Old House Rd., spent part of his vacation camping at Sturdevant Falls. From the looks of him departing, he could have stayed for a month. I thought only girls packed that much!

THE ONG GIRLS, Dorene and Judy, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ong, 3335 Treyan Rd., have come home with the prizes again. Dorene won first place and Judy won second place in the Manners in Hand composition of the last Canyon Vaqueros Show.

MR. AND MRS. Leonard Eb-right, of 1653 Kinneloa Mesa, entertained 24 people last Friday evening with a Chicken Bar-b-que.

MR. AND MRS. George T. Matthews, of 1510 Sierra Madre Villa, have had a busy time this past week. They entertained Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Morse and their two children, Bunnie and Mike, from San Diego for a few days. Then Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and their daughter Susan came up from San Bernardino on March 31 to spend the Easter holidays with them. In addition to the Smiths there were Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Bodie and their children, Brad and Denise, and Mrs. Helen Profant for Easter Sunday celebration. Mr. Matthews was the soloist at the Wistaria Vine at the sunrise services.

MR. AND MRS. Paul Siechert, of 1175 Mesita, had for their house guests last week Mr. and Mrs. John Bruer with their daughters, Cynthia and Kathy, from Peru, Illinois. They stayed for three days.

MR. AND MRS. Edward Meyer, of 3110 Meyer Loa Lane, and their house guest, Mrs. Lily Mae Weaver, spent the morning with the Meyer grandchildren, and then went on to Mrs. Meyer's parents' home, Dr. and Mrs. Harry F. Thompson, for Easter dinner. Mrs. Weaver plans to leave for the East on April 12.

MR. AND MRS. Phillips Finlay, of 1250 Hartwood Point, are visiting the Treavor Gardners in Washington, D. C. They went East to see their son who has just received his orders to report for service in Europe. They are doing a lot of sight-seeing while they have the opportunity.

JULIE PYLE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pyle, spent her Easter vacation in Palm Springs with her Delta Sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Pyle spent theirs in San Diego.

MR. AND MRS. R. C. Fortner, of 1247 Sierra Madre, are entertaining their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Jones and their son Scott, who are visiting from Houston, Tex., for a couple of weeks. Mr. Jones was just recently separated from the service.

MR. AND MRS. George Clark, of 1525 Old House Road, entertained their supper club at a pot luck "breakfast" on Easter morning. Among those enjoying the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ferracon and their five children, Mr. and Mrs. William Friedrich and their two children, Mr. and Mrs. William Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brinton with their three children, and of course, the four Clark children. The event of the morning was the Easter egg hunt which, needless to say, the children thoroughly enjoyed.

Voters League Slates Convention for April 10

The annual convention of the League of Women Voters of Pasadena, scheduled for April 10 in the Palm Room of the Green Hotel, will give members a taste of what will be taking place in Long Beach and Chicago next month when the state and national conventions will be in session. Mrs. William F. Peters, president, will call the meeting to order at 10 a.m. following the registration of members. The treasurer's report for 1955-56 and the proposed budget for 1956-57 will be presented for adoption by Mrs. Alfred T. Hartwell, Jr., and Mrs. F. Earl Sims, respectively.

Fourth Round Card Tourney Scores Told

Results through the fourth round of the Hastings Ranch Nursery School bridge tournament have been announced by Mrs. Gordon Wright, chairman of the third annual series.

Leading couples in the five divisions, and their scores are: Tournament 1—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elwood, 12,320 points; Tournament 2—Mr. and Mrs. William Caldecott, 13,280 points; Tournament 3—Mr. and Mrs. Ken Christiansen, 12,510 points; Tournament 4—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cummins, 14,100 points, and Tournament 5—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ray, 14,680 points.

Fifty Hastings couples are involved in the series, which began in October and will run through May 26, with a play-off among winners in the five divisions set between May 27 and June 16.

Each couple plays the nine other couples in their tournament, with three weeks allowed for each game. Seventh round games should be completed by April 14.

Mrs. Wright, in announcing the scores she has tabulated to date, urged that those who have neglected to mail scores to her do so immediately, so that correct totals to date may be announced.

Harry Wolffs Visit Ensenada

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolff, 1150 Daveric, and their three children, Richard, Merideth and Jo-hanna, spent the better part of Easter vacation at Ensenada, Mexico.

They were accompanied on the holiday by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lorell of Altadena and their two sons, Mark and Kenneth.

RETIREES AFTER 34 YEARS

Miss Helen E. Olmstead, of 585 Manzanita Ave., Sierra Madre, will retire April 17 after serving 34 years in the county health department.

Ranch Decorations to Spark Dance April 14

Decorations will carry out the Ranch theme, when the Hastings Ranch Nursery School holds its annual Spring dance April 14 at the Altadena Town and Country Club.

The committee has even promised a cow (fake, of course), along with wagon wheels, old saddles, lanterns for light, and other trappings to create a strictly informal effect. Guests are asked to wear cottons, sport shirts and even levis if they desire.

The cocktail hour will begin at 8 p.m., with members of the school preparing tidbits to serve with drinks. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m., to the music of the Hot Toddlers.

Mrs. Harris Robinson is chairman of the decorations committee, and Mrs. Gilbert Olsen is responsible for the refreshments to be passed during the cocktail hour.

Mrs. Bernard Bowen has made the posters placed at vantage points through the ranch to advertise the benefit affair.

Hasty Hens Have Luncheon Meeting

Hasty Hens turned their monthly meeting into a luncheon and fashion show, holding their April 2 get-together in Bullock's Pasadena tearoom.

Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Richard Holman, vice president and program chairman.

Rev. Donald H. Ostrander, the Rev. Dr. Robert B. Shattuck, associate executive secretary of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, and Mr. Marvin R. Ives, member of the Pasadena Planning Commission. The ceremony, which took place immediately following the 11 a.m. Easter Service, is the culmination of a successful building drive started last year. The new building of 10,000 square feet will include 10 Sunday School classrooms and office quarters.

Hastings Teen Times

By Judy Jennings
ELgin 5-1808

There was a lot of varied activity during the Easter Vacation. Diane Mallmann, Pat Millan and Karen Vinson went to visit UCLA while Pat was being interviewed. After that they went on over to Santa Monica beach. Wednesday and Thursday Diane's Jobie gang went to Newport and had a real good time. Diane got a beautiful sun tan — hope she doesn't peel. Diane went to Beverly Park's slumber party on Friday. So she had a very, very busy week.

KAREN VINSON's girl friend, Phyllis White, spent a night with her. Karen also went to Beverly's slumber party.

CAROLYN HOWELL placed second in the Beverly Hills Swimming Meet. The Pasadena Athletic Club came in second in the 100-yard free-style relay. The Los Angeles Athletic Club came in first. They won the senior award (but, of course, they have more seniors on their team). Pasadena won the junior award. Carolyn is certainly an outstanding swimmer. It's a thrill to see her swim.

JUDY EVEREST kept busy having a good time, too. Monday, roller skating; Wednesday, she went to the beach, and Thursday she played miniature golf.

NANCY COLLIER's friends from Texas, Gladys and Charlie Hope, visited them. They brought their dog, Queenie — who is a boxer — along. The Hopes have gone on to visit in Southern California and have left Queenie with Nancy. She's enjoying Queenie a lot.

NEW FARM CENTER

A Farm Bureau Center will be organized on the San Luis Obispo campus of California Polytechnic College. An organization meeting will be held on the campus May 2 and the new Farm Center will become active with the opening of the Fall school semester in September.

Party Workers Driving To Boost Registration

With but one week remaining for registration to be eligible to vote in the June 5 primaries, workers of both Democratic and Republican parties are out doing precinct work to remind newcomers to the area to get their names on the books.

Richard B. Pember, 1270

Wynn, is spearheading the Republican drive as area chairman for northeast Pasadena. J. Fred Elmhirst, 3655 Hampton, is chairman of the Democratic organization for the area.

Residents who have not yet registered may do so with any of the following deputy registrars:

Mrs. E. C. Hennig, 1127 Bella Vista; Mrs. K. C. Smith, 2303 E. Cooley; Mrs. E. L. Sears, 526 Sierra Madre; Mrs. E. R. Heath, 955 Crestview; Mrs. B. H. Ritterath, 300 Eaton; Mrs. B. H. Sage, 2740 Millicent Way, and Mrs. H. L. Woodward, 99 Suffolk Ave. In Sierra Madre, registrars are Mrs. H. Glasser, 168 N. Lima; Mrs. J. B. Lester, 405 Manzanita; Miss D. A. Thill, 55 W. Sierra Madre; Mrs. L. M. Warfel, 55 W. Sierra Madre.

To be eligible to vote in the primaries, citizens have through April 12 to get their names on the books.

In the Republican camp, Pember is being assisted by Jack Wickland, as assistant area chairman, and Mrs. Margaret Beggs, secretary, precinct supervisors with eight precinct captains under each, and numbers of block workers.

Republican supervisors in the Hastings Ranch and Sierra Madre Villa area are Jim Cross, 1125 Leonard; Charles Coates, 3645 Hampton; Chris Larsen, 1270 Daveric; Dick Fox, 1150 Mesita and Gordon Stuart, 1800 E. Sierra Madre.

In addition to individual work being done by the energetic Hastings Ranch Democratic members, Elmhirst's precinct workers in the area are Mrs. Lexie Berry, 3700 Landfair; Maurice Bolotin, 1205 Hastings; William Dunn, 1180 Medford; Robert Fainer, 1195 Tropical; George Lenney, 1025 Medford; Nathan Miner, 1115 Tropical; Charles Newcomb, 3660 Cartwright; Michael Nothern, 1130 Daveric; Carl Shafer, 1135 Hastings Ranch, and Tom Yeakle, 830 Rim.

Deputy registrars have located desks in both Market Basket and Shopping Bag grocery stores.

TOURS RESUME

Guided tours of the campus of the California Institute of Technology will be resumed April 2 and will continue until the termination of the school year.

Numbers to Call With Ranch News

Those having news for the Hastings Ranch Section are asked to call Lucie Lubisch at ELgin 5-1921, for the Lower Ranch, and Marge Thomas at SYcamore 3-2743, for the Upper Ranch.

M. Slobodien Is Candidate

Mike Slobodien, 1170 Medford, has filed nomination papers and will seek reelection in the June primary to the County Democratic Central Committee from the 48th Assembly district.

He holds a seat on the committee at present, as he was named to fill the unexpired term of Fred Elmhirst, who resigned. Slobodien has received the endorsement of the party.

Slobodien, a partner in the Los Angeles law firm of Loeb and Loeb, received his bachelor's degree from UCLA and his law degree from USC. During the war he was lieutenant in the Navy as a "frogman," and when the war ended made a three month goodwill tour around the world with several fellow Navy men demonstrating underwater demolition.

Mr. and Mrs. Slobodien have two sons, John, 6, and Bob 2½.

Mrs. Steffens To Entertain for Field PTA Board

Mrs. Jack Steffens, 720 Rim, will be hostess to the Eugene Field PTA executive board for its April meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday. A salad luncheon will be served at noon.

Child care for pre-schoolers of mothers attending will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Fowler, 3785 Landfair.

Special guests for the meeting and luncheon will be first grade room mothers—Mrs. Horace Ray, Mrs. Davis Klett, Mrs. C. W. Rasmussen, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Joe Cummins, Mrs. Jack Robertson, Mrs. Robert S. Sears, Mrs. Peter Ludwig and Mrs. Del Perryman.

Little League Players Auction Gets Under Way This Week

By Charles Ayres.

This is a very important week for the Hastings Ranch Little League managers and officials. They will be holding the players auctions to determine which boys will play on which teams and at the same time settle several other very pressing problems for the coming season's operation.

Next week we'll be able to give the team rosters and report on the plans for the year.

A players' auction is closed to all but the managers, players' agent and league officials. Through the medium of points for the services of the boys whom they feel will best help their respective teams.

Unfortunately, the desire to make a boy the member of his squad is not controlled simply by the manager's amount of points available and the counter desires of the competing managers. For, of the 60 positions allowed in a major league operation, there are only 22 openings in the Hastings major league and these are restricted by age requirements.

League requirements state that no team may have more than five members 12 years of age or less than five 10 and under. For practical purposes this means that major league squads are made up of five 12-year-olds, five 11-year-olds, and five 10-year-olds.

So far as I know, there are only two openings for 12-year-olds in the whole league and those are with the Braves. The Reds, for example, have six openings, of which five are for 10-year-olds and one for a boy 11.

Such being the case, there are bound to be boys who, because of the limit of available openings, will not be chosen for a major league squad even though they have met all the requirements.

Words won't satisfy a disappointed boy but it is well to remember that Little League is just the first step in organized baseball for boys and the important thing is to always play your best and expend every effort to learn and improve.

To have played on a major Little League team is no guarantee that at age 13 a boy is a better ball player when trying out for a Pony or Babe Ruth League position than one who played and learned on a minor league team.

Every effort is made in a players' auction to select the boys most deserving on their past performances with consideration given to how they showed in the tryouts. A boy's attitude and desire to play and learn are more important to me, for example, than any outstanding ability to throw, catch, or bat. Those are the things that can be taught.

From the last check of registrants, there will be around 230 boys playing in the Hastings Ranch Little League this year. With a limit of 60 in the majors and 90 in the minor league, there will be a necessity to provide a farm league for 80 8- and 9-year-olds. This means there is an acute need for more managers, coaches and umpires.

GOODBYE NOW and remember — "The fellow who never sticks his neck out seldom gets his head above the crowd."

GRAND OPENING! OF HASTINGS LIQUOR

With Many Fine Specials in
IMPORTED WINES AT MODERATE PRICES

Dear Friend:

Last week we advertised our grand opening with a few bargain items. However, Hastings Liquors is not the ordinary purveyor of liquors, but an expert in the field with over 40 years' experience in the wine industry.

Here is a liquor store where you can take advantage of counseling service at no extra cost and know you are buying not only the best, but the right wines and liquors.

A telephone call to ELgin 5-2886 will bring you prompt delivery service in Hastings, Arcadia, the Oaks and Sierra Madre.

Very truly yours,
Mr. Ralph Cantisano.

Alpha Phi-esta To Be April 7 at Sportsmen's Lodge

Members of the Southland's alumnae of Alpha Phi are looking forward to their annual Alpha Phi-esta slated for April 7 at the Sportsmen's Lodge in North Hollywood. This year a dinner dance will replace the usual fashion show and luncheon to benefit the sorority's building fund.

Mrs. Paul A. Van Amburgh, general chairman for the event, has announced her committee has many plans for the gay and colorful affair. She will be assisted by Mrs. F. Chandler Harris, Mrs. Roger Churton, Mrs. Armand Fontaine, Mrs. John Firth, Mrs. A. G. Staker and Mrs. Richard Pearson.

Also, Mrs. E. S. Gary, Mrs. Edward Ford, Mrs. Gordon Hayter, Mrs. Charles C. Hatch, Jr., Mrs. Kermit A. Jacobson, Mrs. Barry Hillard and Mrs. Robert L. Farmer, president of the Pasadena alumnae.

Those recently installed officers of the Southern California Council who will be honored at this time are Mrs. George O. Stouffer, president; Mrs. Van Amburgh, vice-president; Mrs. John Leeper, treasurer; and Mrs. Frank E. Hand, secretary.

FORUM BEGINS
The first in a series of six Community Forums will be open to the public at Monrovia-Duarte High School this evening at 7:45 p.m. in the large auditorium. Robert Friars will begin the series with an all color film of Florida and the keys.

GOP Precinct Captains Named in Hastings, Villa

Ten active Republicans have agreed to serve as precinct captains for this election year in the Upper Hastings Ranch and Sierra Madre Villa, according to James Cross, area supervisor.

They are Richard G. Morse, 1120 Leonard, and Mrs. Anita Martin, 1100 Riviera Dr., Precinct 212; Mrs. Isabelle Stires, 945 Hastings Ranch Dr., Precinct 220; William H. Petit Jr., 1300 Daveric, Precinct 221; Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Kelso, 1015 Cynthia, Precinct 213; Robert W. Reed Jr., 1350 Tropical, Precinct 222.

Also, Clarence L. Wells, 3325 Vosburg, Mrs. John Wilfong, 3250 Mesaloe Lane, Mervin A. Grizzle, 2258 N. Villa Heights Rd., Precincts 1-14 (Sierra Madre Villa and Kinneloe Mesa).

The precinct captains are now recruiting block workers to help in the registration drive and the primary election.

The straight and narrow path is wide enough for its traffic.

Craig Caldwell Marks Birthday At Easter Party

Last Saturday proved to be a most exciting day for a number of children in the Upper Ranch. Craig Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Caldwell, 1100 Medford Rd., celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary at an Easter luncheon.

The Easter Bunny came a day early and decorated the table with baskets of eggs and hid a number of eggs in the yard so the young guests could enjoy an Easter egg hunt.

Small bunnies and chickens tumbled over the top and sides of a gaily decorated birthday cake which was placed on a musical platter.

Included in the afternoon's festivities were an Easter Roll and "Pin the tail on the bunny."

Those taking part in the fun were Steven Grimm, Gary Heimbruch, Craig Johnston, Paul Lifton, Donald McLane, Dale Wade, David Fair, Linda Curry and Debbie Lou Johnson.

Cheryl Bloss Has Hobo Party

Rags and patches were very much in evidence at the recent "Hobo Party" given by Cheryl Bloss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Bloss, 1140 Pine Bluff Dr.

Barbecued hot dogs and all that goes with them were enjoyed by Judy and Janice Roswell, Donna Barclay, Leona Burnett, Nancy Forsberg, Carolyn Regnolds, Jeanne Gates, Diane Gibbs, Susan Shearer and Penny Goudge.

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand REPORTS THE WASHINGTON NEWS

By EDGAR W. Hiestand
Representative, 21st District

Each of our recent columns has been devoted chiefly to one subject. Today we'll try to "cover the waterfront," sampling some of the recent actions and opinions here on Capitol Hill.

A GROUP of Southern California fire and watershed officials came to Washington recently to testify in detail before a Senate appropriations subcommittee on the need for increased fire protection funds for our forests. They presented their case excellently.

Earlier I had asked a House subcommittee to include an extra $1,750,000 in next year's budget for fire protection in the Angeles, Cleveland, Los Padres and San Bernardino National Forests. Past experience shows the money would be well spent, because wherever we have increased protection, losses have dropped spectacularly.

Among those testifying were Robert T. Radford, chairman of the L. A. County Watershed Commission and former mayor of Monrovia; Chief Keith E. Klinger of the Los Angeles County Fire Department, from Arcadia; Eugene R. Hoffman of North Hollywood, secretary of the Watershed Commission, and Whitford B. Carter of Lancaster, testifying for the Watershed-Fire Council of Southern California.

SHAMROCKS blossomed in the buttonholes of House and Senate members last week as Prime Minister John A. Costello of Ireland visited Washington and addressed a joint session of Congress. His address was stayed long enough to take part in St. Patrick's Day festivities.

Costello was the third chief of state to visit the capital this year, following Prime Minister Anthony Eden of Britain and President Giovanni Gronchi of Italy.

These visits accomplish more than would seem on the surface. They allow our lawmakers to see this country through foreign eyes, and often the view is revealing.

EX PRESIDENT HOOVER made one of his rare speeches here in telling a U.S. Chamber of Commerce group what must be done to cut waste and inefficiency in government. He hit hard for adoption of recommendations of the Hoover Bipartisan Commission.

Many bills have been introduced by both parties to cut government spending. I have 12 measures under consideration and testified on one of them this past week. But it will be a tough battle to get all of the recommendations adopted.

The attitude among many Congressmen is: "Let's wait. Let's not stir up friction during election year by cutting down on department costs."

I disagree. The time to save is now. Our ancestors left us no staggering debts and it isn't fair for us to expect our children to pay for today's squandering.

Orville J. Johnsons Have Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Johnson, 1215 Tropical, and their children, David and Debbie Lou, attended a family picnic Easter Sunday at Covina Park.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. High Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Pederson and their children, Myra Jean, Ricky and Skippy, Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson and their son, Bobby, and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Campbell and their daughter, Lu Ann.

NOTHING NEW

The game of politics is usually a contest built around allegation and alibi.

BANQUET SPEAKER

Charles S. Thomas, secretary of the Navy, will address the 25th annual Youth Banquet, formerly known as the $10 Plate Banquet, April 25th at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel under the auspices of the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce.

LOLA MONTES, Spanish dancer, will end a 26-week tour of the U.S., Canada and Mexico with a concert by her entire company at Philharmonia Auditorium April 13 at 8:30 p.m.

RODEO THEME

"An All-American Sport in an 'All-American' City," is the theme selected for the 1956 Sheriff's Rodeo and Parade, May 19 and 20, in Riverside's De Anza Park.
